Join our global Chambers of Commerce and esteemed, international delegates as we discuss business opportunities across industries focusing on healthcare, real estate, education, media, arts, design, entertainment, enterprise, finance, the non-profit sector and government, and how these areas affect peace, opportunity and the goodwill of every society.

Our event will continue the dialogue and recognize "International Peace Day" in our discussions to grow relationships among people around the world. Our vast selection of speakers will add a global perspective to this important, international observance.
